

2014 Hamilton County Builder of the Year

Bedrock Builders is a premier custom home builder in the Indianapolis area. With spectacular architectural features and cutting-edge interior floor plans, a Bedrock Builders home will provide elegant living for every individual lifestyle.

"A home is more than bricks, boards, and mortar...it should enhance your lifestyle and uniquely reflect your personality and achievements..."

This is the philosophy and the foundation on which Bedrock Builders was founded. Bedrock Builders doesn't just build hundreds of similar homes a year, but focuses on building distinctive homes with personal attention to details ~ details that differentiate a Bedrock home from other homes. With a full range of architectural design services, and custom features and amenities, Bedrock Builders goes beyond just helping you build a home; it helps you design and build your home.
